
Both polar charts and smooth joins included. Conservative bounds, not measured gradients.
The heat defect and supporting source remain uncomputed; atom passage is not established.